

DISTRICT COURT OF APPEAL OF THE STATE OF FLORIDA
FOURTH DISTRICT

VIRGINIA PARENTEAU,
Appellant,

v.

LEONARD PARENTEAU,
Appellee.

No. 4D14-2309

[October 14, 2015]

Appeal from the Circuit Court for the Nineteenth Judicial Circuit, St. Lucie County; Barbara W. Bronis, Judge; L.T. Case No. 11-4086 DR.

William T. Hess of Hess & Heathcock, P.A., Stuart, for appellant.

No appearance for appellee.

PER CURIAM.

Virginia Parenteau, the ex-wife, seeks review of the Final Judgment of Dissolution of Marriage, arguing the trial court miscalculated the value of the distribution of assets to her ex-husband. Because the ex-wife did not preserve her argument for appeal, we affirm. However, we do so without prejudice to the ex-wife to file a motion for relief from judgment to cure any perceived mathematical errors. Fla. R. Civ. P. 1.540(a).

Affirmed without prejudice.

STEVENSON, GROSS and TAYLOR, JJ., concur.

Not final until disposition of timely filed motion for rehearing.
